De Walhoeve

In De Drie Vennen restaurant we use many products from De Walhoeve, including the ground beef that we use for our burgers.

The smoked chicken salad & the filet americain that feature on our lunch menu also comes from De Walhoeve.

We have more than 35 years of experience at De Walhoeve in caring for our beef bulls. Every year we purchase a number of calves with great care, and the animals are allowed to grow peacefully until they are adult and have the perfect meat quality. When they are about two years old they are mature and go to slaughter. The meat from the animals comes back to the farm and is carved by professional butchers and sold fresh across the counter. It is also made into salads and sold in slices

Robèrt van Beckhoven

Nearly all the bread we serve in our restaurant is produced by Robèrt van Beckhoven. Robèrt's surname (van Beckhoven = Baker's Oven) says it all: a family with a strong baking tradition.

Beckhoven's grandfather moved to Oisterwijk with his family in 1927 to open a bakery. Grandfather's brother decided to stay at his bakery in Haaren. Later on Robèrt's father, Jan van Beckhoven, set up business in Oisterwijk with his oldest son.

'Smaakgeheimen' - Secret Tastes

It all began in the kitchen at Adrie & Miriam's restaurant on the old market place in Eersel. Chef Miriam had many volumes full of recipes.

From dressings to cheese dips and from sauces to vinaigrettes. The guests added their comments in the margin and so the recipes were refined time after time until the perfect combination was found.

These tasty tips were so popular that the guests also took them home with them. Then the idea came about to produce these delicacies and sell them to consumers and restaurants..

"Sitting around the table with family and friends is our lucky moment!"

These products are also available in our local shop

The De Stroom Educational Fish Farm owes its name to the meandering River Beerze which flows next to the premises. We farm catfish in an environmentally friendly way in the beautiful countryside close to picturesque Oirschot.

You will find several dishes with De Stroom Fish Farm catfish on our menu. One of the starters is the Trio fish salad, which includes smoked catfish. You can also order this delicious fish as a main course, it's included in our fish platter.
